

MBA International Student Orientation

Summer, 2010

Welcome to the Lindenwood University MBA program!

What Should You Do Now?

1. Get ready for your MBA program orientation.

Review your orientation schedule carefully. Please note that if you do not attend orientation, you will not be able to begin your business program and will be required to wait until the following term. During this orientation you will:

- Take an English Language Placement Exam
- Receive a detailed introduction to MBA program requirements
- Plan your course of study and choose your area of emphasis
- Meet with your advisor to plan your degree schedule and enroll in classes
- Receive your class schedule
- Begin your first night assignments (due in class on the first meeting).
- Address any outstanding administrative issues and concerns before beginning classes

2. Contact the International Office when you receive your visa.

As soon as your visa is granted, please inform the International Office via email at international@lindenwood.edu. This is the only way for you to confirm your arrival to the university and receive a housing assignment. (Please note that no housing assignment will be confirmed until we hear from you that you have received a visa.)

3. Email us your travel schedule.

The university also needs to know when to expect you! Please email your travel itinerary (with arrival times) to the International Office at international@lindenwood.edu and to Rebecca Goulart at the School of Business at rgoulart@lindenwood.edu. (Remember that if you do not arrive in time for orientation, you will not be able to begin your program.)

ORIENTATION SCHEDULE:

Your orientation program begins with new student check-in between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 21st or Monday May 24th. You will receive your housing assignment at that time. Please note: There will be no weekend check-in.
