

HLC Fact of the Day:
“HLC Assurance Argument: Subcomponent 2C4”
(with specific focus on “Delegation of Day-to-Day Management”)
(October 3, 2017)

In the HLC Criteria for Accreditation, Subcomponent 2C4 says:

The governing board delegates day-to-day management of the institution to the administration and expects the faculty to oversee academic matters.

In our Assurance Argument being prepared for HLC, and in support of the 2C4 standard, this is what we say regarding “Delegation of Day-to-Day Management”:

Delegation of Day-to-Day Management

Board bylaws designate the university president "the principal executive officer of the University," responsible for day-to-day internal management of the university; the faculty and administration oversee the development and management of the academic matters. The Faculty Committee Handbook and Faculty Council Bylaws (see Lindenwood Proposal Process 2016 – page 7) clearly spell out the role faculty play in overseeing academic matters.
