LINDENWOOD
UNIVERSITY

ALUMNI

Dear Parents,

Many in the Lindenwood University community have been impacted by COVID-19, and the Advancement Office would like to thank everyone for the concern that has been shown over the last few weeks. Dedicated parents, alumni, and friends have asked how they can help, so we have created the Lions' Relief Fund to help our students who need it more than ever.

Designed to ensure the safety and success of our students, the Lions' Relief Fund will address students' needs in this ever-changing crisis. Some students may need access to technology to continue their studies virtually. Others may need help with everyday necessities, such as food and hygiene products and access to health services. Additional support may also be needed for students who were granted hardship waivers to live in university housing because they could not return home.

Lindenwood is committed to responding quickly to our Lion family and the needs of our students to make it through this crisis. Your help now is more important than ever to support our student success and continue the legacy of Lindenwood University. Please visit here to donate. We ask that you pass along the information about the Lions' Relief Fund to others who care about student success and may also wish to contribute.

Thank you for your support and all you do for Lindenwood. Always remember, we are #LionsUnited and #LionsGive to ensure our students' success for a bright future

Sincerely,

RACHAEL HEUERMANN
