Y. W. Election

On the 4th of March a committee consisting of Mrs. Roemer, the Y. W. president, Lena Allison the cabinet, Ailse Norris, Margaret Owen, Madeline Lasar and Elizabeth Swain, and two members of the student board to be elected later, will nominate the officers and cabinet for the following year. These nominations will be voted on by the student body.

Athletic Association

The Valentyne Shoppé financially speaking was a great success for the Lindenwood Athletic Association. They now have $77.10 ($6.90 of which was contributed by the Linden Barks) in the treasury for sending three delegates to Bloomington Indiana on March 20. Miss Weld, Florence Bartz, and one other member to be elected by the Association at its regular meeting the first Tuesday in March. These delegates will present our honor system which has the unique distinction of being the only system which places every student on an equal basis for making points.

Dr. Roemer left Monday to attend a meeting of the National Association of Teachers at Atlantic City. He will also visit Morgantown, Philadelphia, Wheeling, Chillicothe, and New York City. He will be away probably two weeks.

Mrs. Walker of Butler Mo. is the guest of her daughter, Agnes.

Professor Ankeney

Professor J.S. Ankeney, of the University of Missouri, Lindenwood non-resident Lecturer on Art will give the second of his series of lectures in the college chapel Friday evening, March 4.

Saturday Professor Ankeney will take the students in the Art department to the museum in St. Louis for observance and study.

It is probable that other lecturers from the departments of art and architecture will speak to the students during the year.

Faculty are Entertained

Mrs. Roemer and Miss Gaines entertained the members of the faculty on Tuesday night at Margaret Hall. The house was beautifully and artistically decorated in red, white and blue and the colors characteristic of Washington's Birthday were also carried out in the refreshments.

During the evening interesting and original games were played and later refreshments consisting of brick ice-cream decorated with cherries, hatchets and flags, two kinds of cake and red white and blue mints were served.

Mrs. Roemer and Miss Gaines are delightful hostesses and the faculty members are indebted to them for one of the most enjoyable parties of the year.

Miss Tomplin returned Monday from Chicago where she has been attending the National Conference of Junior Colleges.

Mrs. Asbury of Higginville Mo. came Wednesday to see Joannette.

Friday evening the Sophomores, as Lords and Ladies of the early colonial days, are to be hosts and hostesses for the faculty and girls of Lindenwood.

This is the annual Sophomore affair and it is to be combined with a birthday dinner for those whose birthdays are in January and February. So let's eat and be merry for the whole evening is to be a continual surprise.

MISS JACKSON TO LECTURE

Miss Florence Jackson, the vocational advisor of Wellesley College, has accepted the position of non-resident lecturer and advisor on vocational subjects for Lindenwood. Miss Jackson gives lectures in all the women's colleges on "Vocations for Women", and will pay her annual visit to Lindenwood in April. She will also hold conferences with the girls and will be of great help for which they are best fitted.

Miss Fredericks Friesmeyer of Liberty, Mo., a former student of Lindenwood, will visit Miss Frances Titzell Friday.

WHOM ARE YOU GOING TO VOTE FOR?

Sometime in March officers will be elected for Y. W. and the Athletic Association. The Girls who will replace our present most efficient officers are to represent YOU: What kind of a girl do you wish to take these responsible positions? Somewhere in this school is the girl who can keep the Y.W.C.A. a vital force. Somewhere in school is the girl who can make the Athletic Association a live wire. Wouldn't it be a shame if we did not find these girls? Let's think about it.

An organization can usually be measured by the standard of its officers. We can not afford to make a mistake. If we show the faculty our ability to choose for ourselves, perhaps they will give us the opportunity to prove that we can elect a student council as excellent as the one the faculty committee chose this year. They are the right sort. Let's keep up this year's standard of officers in all of our organizations.

Thursday Assemblies

Next Thursday morning Judge Hobein will be with us again for a talk and for the awarding of the Daniel Webster prize.

This morning we enjoyed a splendid musical recital given by the following students: Edith Tedford, Edna Brown, Leah Floyd, Annie Brooks Gardner, Evelyn Curran, Marian Titus, Marian Thompson, LeNelle Breckenridge, Elizabeth Swaim, Mildred Troutfetter, Maurine McMahan, Louise Clark and Margaret Jones.

The contest of the Rainbow started off with great enthusiasm Wednesday night. The Niccols Blue-Bird must fly swiftly if it expects to reach the pot of gold first. The very last mile must be traveled in the next three weeks, as the pot is to be uncovered before Spring vacation.

The captains in the various buildings are as follows: Niccols Frances Titzell, Green Reudy and Isabel Weisman, Sibley- Louise Clark and Margaret Jones, Jubilee Lisle Dickey, June Beyler and Gladys Carnahan, and in Butler, Fess Reeder, Dorothy Weber and Dorothy Howard.

PRAYER WEEK

Dr. W. M. Cleveland, Associate Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions of St. Louis, closes his series of lectures on the Near East this evening.

Dr. Cleaveland has given us many of the new phases of the situations existing in the countries of the Near East, many of which we may help to remedy by devoting some of our time and efforts to the task. Not only are missionaries needed, but business people and teachers. Dr. Cleaveland also held conferences with different students on Thursday afternoon.
