

Vera Eberle

LINDEN BARKS

Vol. 1

November 11, 1920

No. 6

MRS. ROEMER'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

The Freshman class entertained the faculty, students and friends of Lindenwood College last Friday night with a dinner dance in honor of Mrs. Roemer's birthday. A delicious dinner of

- Grapefruit Cocktail
 - Chicken Patties Gravy
 - Sweet Potatoes Asparagus
 - Hot Rolls and Butter Pickles
 - Shrimp Salad and Wafers
 - Cherry Ice Cream Cakes
 - Demi-Tasse Candied Ginger
- was served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated in the Freshman colors, lavender and purple.

After dinner the guests went to the gym which had been transformed into a beautiful ballroom with soft violet lights. After the grand march the dancing began. The music was furnished by the new St. Charles orchestra. During the intermission the guests were entertained by a pageant presented by members of the Freshman class. The poetry was composed by Marjorie Welch and Kathryn Weiss. The characters were:

- Freshman.....Ida Hoeflin
- Recklessness.....Marian Pohlman
- Folly.....Udolpha Phillips
- Temper.....Anna Draver
- Laziness.....Margaret Morris
- Preverseness.....Franc Coleman

(Continued on Page 2)

UPPER CLASSMEN MIXER

Do you want a lot of real sport? Forget you are a grown up lady. Come to the Upper Classmen's Mixer on Nov. 12th in the gym dressed like the little brothers and sisters you left at home. Everybody is invited. You can eat, dance, and learn some startling things, never before disclosed to man. The requirements are pep, loose change, and kid clothes. The latter refers equally to the faculty.

ART CLUB BAZARR

The art department under Miss Linneman, is doing some very fine work in enameling and posters. Great preparation is being made for the annual bazaar which will be held Dec. 3, at 7:30 p. m. The girls are asked to save their money and buy their Christmas gifts at the bazaar. The proceeds will be used for the care of the little French orphans that the club has adopted.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Tuesday afternoon a meeting of the athletic association was called for the purpose of reorganization. A large number of old girls attended, and after a constitution was formally drawn

(Continued on Page 3)

LINDEN BARKS

LINDEN BARKS

A Weekly Newspaper Published
by Students at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo.

BOARD OF EDITORS

Louise Child	Laura Cross
Gladys McKinley	Virginia Keith
	Cathleen Richeau

STAFF OF ASSISTANTS

Bettie Townsend	Margaret Morris
Keo Richards	Marion Bowers
Elizabeth Hoiles	Helen Bayer
Anna Shelton	Hazel Coley
Frances Smith	Jean Maser
Frances Titzell	Edythe Cleveland
Frances Warren	Gertrude Wollenberger
Kathryn Weiss	Alice Chapman
Mildred Leifer	Lucy Moore
Margaret Owen	Stella Harris
Florence Heyde	Lucile Cash
Lucile Parkin	Helen Riordan
Marie Arthur	Josephine Rosenberg
Dorothy Howard	Elizabeth Cowan
	Martha Finley

EDITORIAL

Have you noticed the great interest lately displayed in the M. U., Okla. and K. U. games? We girls surely do love football!

Then there is the pest who always gets specials and White-marsh chocolates on Sunday. Every time we have a party he sends her a corsage, too. You can imagine how the rest of us feel.

After all, honor is merely good sportmanship, and what is good sportmanship but having the courage to do unto others as you would have others do unto you. Speaking of oils, did you ever hear of 6 on 1?

I just never could see how some girls stand so much dentistry work. About every week they have to see the doctor. Some of us have the poorest kind of health.

There is nothing bad. The wrong lies in inappropriateness. Charley's little gray cat is very appropriate down in the barn but we're here to say Butler is no place for him.

Speaking of Heinz, did you ever hear of the seven year variety?

Some day, if we die, and go to—well, you know where, we hope to see certain members of the musical faculty having class lessons before a metropolitan opera—why girls leave school!

(Continued from Page 1)

Vanity.....	Martha Brill
Worldly Wise.....	Fanny Hill
Spirit of Lindenwood.....	Edith Arcularius
Love.....	Helen Fowles
Sympathy.....	Fay McCormick
Ambition.....	Elinor Montgomery
Vivacity.....	Gertrude Wollenberger
Truth.....	Evelyn Curran
Modesty.....	Dorothy Howard
	Accompanist, Marie Cowgill

Miss Marion Thompson sang a solo, "My Heart Is Like a Singing Bird," in her usual charming manner.

Mrs. Roemer was lovely in a gown of white satin with a corsage of violets, lillies of the valley and orchid ostrich plumes, a gift from the Freshmen. The faculty and students presented her with a diamond and sapphire ring.

Refreshments of French ice

HAVE YOU HEARD?

Have you heard the rumors of the football game to be played Thanksgiving Day? We hear that the Oklahoma club will play the Arkansas club, drawing straws to see which will be Missouri and which will be Kansas. Mr. Motley will coach the teams and Jack Horner will referee the game, while Elizabeth Swain will be head linesman. With such stars as Dot Weber, Gladys Carnahan, Ailee Norris, Lyle Dicky, Lil Pittman and Bill Springer we have no doubt that the game will be as exciting and close as the real M. U. and K. U. game.

ARMISTICE DAY

Dr. Severns of Missouri University will address the girls of Lindenwood at eleven o'clock assembly on Thursday morning. His address will be "The Armistice and Reconstruction."

Major de Lecluse, formerly of the French army and at present a teacher in the college will also give a patriotic address. Patriotic songs will also be a part of the assembly program.

cream and cakes were served and the evening ended in a haze of confetti and dreamy music.

The guests present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Werner, Mr. and Mrs. Folson, Mr. and Mrs. Null, Dr. and Mrs. Ellwanger, Dr. and Mrs. Stumberg, Dr. and Mrs. Calder, M. DeLecluse and daughter Odette, Miss Farmer.

ELECTION BETS

If some girls seem to do strange things do not conclude that they are noncompos mentis. Let's hope it doesn't snow for three Sundays yet, as straw hats are not particularly adapted to stormy weather, and friend Cathleen Richeau is no Eskimo.

Others express their sorrow at defeat by psyche knots—a diversion from the usual sack cloth and ashes. We would not advise Martha Brill to adopt this mode permanently.

The folly of rashness is well understood by Laura Cross. Any way, her word is law even when it demands placing her allegiance to Harding on Mrs. Sibley's grave during rec.

P. S.—She went all alone. Have you noticed the hair at her temples?

Some fine day Margaret Owen will perambulate Gladys McKinley around the campus—not a la victoria, but a la wheelbarrow. Another victim who just "aint" no prophet at all.

(Continued from Page 1)

up and adopted the following officers were elected: Florence Bartz, president; Elizabeth S. Swain, vice-president; Eva Fleming, secretary; Clara Ehleb, treasurer. The leaders of the various sports are as follows: Tennis, Jeanette Asbury; swimming, Madeline Lasar; dancing, Miriam Kennedy; hiking, June Beyler; basket ball, Kathleen Fleming; base ball, Helen

(Continued on Page 4.)

LINDEN BARKS

HERE AND THERE

On Thursday, Nov. 4th, Miss Gaines gave an interesting talk in the chapel on the Symphony explaining what to listen to for the best appreciation. She discussed the arrangement of the orchestra and the various instruments, using pictures to illustrate.

The popularity of the French and Spanish languages has occasioned the organization of French and Spanish clubs. Plays are to be given later.

The National Relations Club have organized with the following officers: Pres., Cathleen Richeau; Sec., Bettie Townsend; Advisor, Miss Spahr. The next meeting will be Nov. 18th.

HAVE YOU MET MARGARET HALL? Teachers and students will be given an opportunity to meet this illustrious lady on Thanksgiving afternoon.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the chapel the morning of Nov. 25th.

The College Choir gave a song service in Vespers Nov. 7th. The soloists were Maurice Parker and Ailee Norris, organ, and Elizabeth Swain and Lanelle Breckinridge, voice.

Frances Titzell led the Y. W.

C. A. meeting this week. The subject was "Minus Mary Smith."

On Thanksgiving evening Henry L. Southwick of Emerson College, Boston, Mass., will deliver a lecture under the auspices of the expression department. Miss Porter promises a definite announcement concerning her Christmas programs, soon.

Students who have enrolled for Miss Allyn's commercial law class are looking forward to an interesting course. The class started Tuesday, Nov. 9.

FOUR-YEAR COURSE NOW ACCREDITED

Lindenwood is now a four-year accredited college, having been admitted to the Missouri College Union at their annual meeting Oct. 28, at Springfield. Upon application for membership a committee consisting of Dean Jones of Missouri University and O. E. Krioge, president Central Wesleyan, was sent to Lindenwood. The favorable report of this committee was followed by the unanimous vote of the Union to admit Lindenwood.

(Continued from Page 3)

Reuhl; track and field, Dorothy Weber. The girls show great interest and enthusiasm over the activities of the coming winter, and expect the hearty co-operation of every L. C. girl, both old and new.