

LINDENWOOD

UNIVERSITY

STUDENT ASSESSMENT SCHOLARS INTERNSHIP APPLICATION

The Student Assessment Scholar program is a three-credit internship opportunity for Lindenwood students through the Office of Academic Affairs. The scholars investigate critical issues and offer recommendations to faculty, staff, and administrators based on qualitative data collected from our student population. Student Assessment Scholars receive training in focus group methods, data analysis, and research dissemination.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Last Name _____ First Name _____ M.I. _____
Street Address _____
City _____ State _____ Zip _____
Phone _____ Student E-mail: _____ @lindenwood.edu
Student ID A000 _____
Major _____ Minor _____
Recommending faculty, staff, or administrator: _____
Enrolled as a: Freshmen Sophomore Junior Senior Graduate Student
Campus Clubs/Activities in which you are involved: _____

INTERNSHIP DETAILS:

Internship Title: Student Assessment Scholars

Department: Academic Affairs

Credits:

1 credit for Fall Semester

2 credits for Spring Semester

(This program runs for a full academic year.)

- During Fall Semester, students participate in research training with Institutional Research and Academic Affairs, identify the 'clients', design the study, and seek IRB approval.
- During the Spring Semester, students carry out the focus groups, analyze the data, and disseminate the findings.

Approvals: I recommend this student to complete an internship as a Student Assessment Scholar.

Signatures:

Faculty/Staff/Admin: _____ Date: _____

For the Office of Academic Affairs to complete:

Recommending signature: Yes No

Student is hired: Yes No

Academic Affairs: _____ Date: _____