LINDENWOOD UNIVERSITY

We are pleased to announce that Lindenwood University was awarded funding from the Department of Education Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund II (HEERF II). A portion of these funds will be used to provide emergency financial aid grants directly to students. You have the option to request assistance if you have faced a hardship due to the pandemic.

Eligibility: Under the legislation, it currently requires that all students receiving a grant must meet the following:

- Must be a U.S. Citizen.
- Have emergency costs that fall under the following categories: Tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health care), technology, course materials or child care.
- Students must be currently enrolled at Lindenwood University during the Spring 2021 term.
- These funds can be used to satisfy an outstanding account balance. This is optional and not required.
- Students are only allowed to receive one emergency grant through HEERF II.

Process:

To submit an appeal, please log into your student portal portal.lindenwood.edu/estudent/login.asp and click the link HEERF II Relief on the left side. All appeals must be received by March 26, 2021 in order to qualify for review of eligibility. If you are awarded funding, you will be notified via your Lindenwood email by April 16th.
