ECONOMICS PEP TALK:

The significance of studying economics while keeping in mind the importance of character

Lawrence W. "Larry" Reed

President of the Foundation for Economic Education (FEE)

Members of the local community, faculty, staff, and students will have an opportunity to attend a riveting discussion featuring Lawrence W. "Larry" Reed from the Foundation for Economic Education (FEE). Reed's latest book – Real Heroes – Inspiring True Stories of Courage, Character and Conviction, featuring biographies of some 40 individuals covering 2,500 years of history will be the basis for his economics 'pep talk' about the significance of studying economics while keeping in mind the importance of character.
